Absolute perfection

Do you suppose the Victor Company could pay fortunes to Caruso and other famous singers to make records exclusively for the Victor if the records did not reproduce their voices perfectly? Would these world famous singers make such contracts if the Victor records did not do their superb voices perfect justice? The proof of the wonderful perfection of Victor records is in the records themselves. Come and hear them. There's a Victor for YOU. $10 to $250. Terms to suit.

—Call and see my line of handsome jewelry. My stock is new and everything is up-to-date. My prices are reasonable and I have only to compare with the same grade of goods with anybody in the market. If we haven't what you want we will get it for you. Optical and repair work a specialty. Don't fail to see my credentials as an optician. You will find me in the old postoffice building.

AARON MCCONNELL.

—The formal opening of the Millersburg Female College took place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the college chapel. A large audience was present which was largely made up of ladies. After devotional exercises and short talks were made by Rev. T. W. Watts of the Methodist church, R. S. Sanders of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Weir of the Associate Reform church, and J. O. A. Vaught, P. E. of the Frankfort District The address of the morning was delivered by Prof. Shipp of W. N. hester, a former student of M. F. C. in the primary department. Prof. Shipp is an old Millersburg boy and his address was received with enthusiasm. It was a splendid address which will always be remembered by those who heard it. After the meeting the visitors took in the building, especially the primary department, where they found much to interest them.

—A letter has been received from Miss Virginia Hutchcraft saying she is highly pleased with the school and people of Sanders, Ga. She was met at the depot by a carriage drawn by a horse named Kentucky. She felt like kissing both horse and driver. Some of the young men are contemplating driving a span to Sanders, naming one of them Millersburg and the other Kentucky, just to see what the result would be.

—Pete Griggs, colored, sold last week to President C. C. Fisher of the Millersburg Female College, a handsome lot on Vimont street at the rear of the College. The house was occupied by Lindsay Clay, colored. President Fisher will make an effort to secure all the property on that square. He now owns half of it. When this is done he will make it a part of the M. F. C. grounds and will build a swimming pool.

Carnegie Hero Medal Winner Dead.

Mr. Rufus K. Combs, 52 years of age, died Wednesday morning at 3:05 o'clock at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, where he has been confined for about two weeks with typhoid fever. Mr. Combs has been ill for about a month, but it was found necessary to take him to a hospital only about two weeks ago.

Mr. Combs in 1906 was awarded the Carnegie hero medal for saving the life of Mr. Richard Godson, who lives near Midway. Mr Combs succeeded in dragging Mr. Godson from an enclosed pit, where he had been rendered unconscious by gasoline fumes.

He was well-known to the base ball enthusiasts all over the Blue Grass League, being a staunch supporter of his home club. He frequently visited Paris where he was well liked by a large number of friends.

Suit to Set Aside the Burgess Will.

On an appeal from the Bourbon County Court, Quincy Burgess, through his attorneys C. A. McMillan, Robert Franklin and Talbot & Whitely, filed suit in the Bourbon Circuit Court against Horace M. Davis and Omer B. Lloyd, executors of the estate of his late brother, John T. Burgess, asking that the will of the deceased be set aside.

The estate of Mr. Burgess was valued at about $60,000. Four hundred acres of fine Bourbon county land recently sold by the executors, brought a sum which in the aggregate amounted to about $49,000 and this, together with personal property brought the entire estate to the value above stated.

Dying without issue and after devising various sums to a number of nephews and nieces, Mr. Burgess, who was a member of the Baptist church, bequeathed to the Southern Elkhorn Baptist church $3,000, to the Bryant Station church $2,000, to the Baptist Orphan Home, Louisville, $3,000 Orphans' Home, Lexington, $1,000 and to the Williamsburg Institute, Williamsburg, Ky., he left $10,000 to be used for the education of the poor and worthy mountain children. The will of the deceased did not provide any bequest for Mr. Quincy Burgess or his children.

Lyceum Course.

Prof. Albert H. Morehead has arranged for an excellent lyceum course which will be given in the auditorium of the Paris City School during the winter months. The course consists of five numbers all of which are entertainments of the highest standard and come with the highest recommendations of the press. The first number, which will be given on the evening of October 14, will be Elbert Foland and the Italian boys in the literary and musical fantasy, "A Night in Venice." December 7, Stephen Marion Reynold will deliver a series of lectures; January 13, 1911 Fred Emerson Brooks, poet humorist; February 8, Julius Caesar Mayphie, lecturer; March 23, the Dudley Buck concert company, will be the last of the series of entertainments. The course comes under the direction of the Central Lyceum Bureau and Prof. Morehead is to be congratulated upon securing so many entertainers. Season tickets to the five numbers, which have been placed on sale at $1.50, are meeting with ready sale, and a canvas has revealed the fact that the musical and literary people of Paris are going to lend Prof. Morehead their assistance in making his efforts a success, by treating them to such entertainments.
